Dear Teachers,

You are cordially invited to participate in Montana's Do the Write Thing Challenge, a violence prevention program that targets 7th and 8th grade students and asks them to take a stand against violence in their schools and communities. 2018 marks the 11th anniversary of Montana's participation in the National program. Sixth grade students may also participate if they are in the same building as the 7th and 8th grade students.

By participating you will be joined by hundreds of other middle school teachers from across the United States in a coordinated, unique effort to give students the opportunity to communicate their thoughts on the impact of youth violence on their lives and to make personal commitments to reduce violence.

More than 1,000 Montana middle school students have submitted thought-provoking, insightful essays and poems. Each year Montana's Do the Write Thing committee selects one boy and one girl to represent Montana as our ambassadors to Washington, D.C. accompanied by a parent and the sponsoring teacher to attend a four-day gathering of other ambassadors. Parents, teachers, and students attend workshops and visit Capitol Hill. A leather-bound book containing the ambassadors' writings is presented to the Library of Congress; our students have been invited to read their essays aloud at the Library of Congress and the Supreme Court.

The instructions, lesson plans, a copy of the cover sheet for you to duplicate, and a brochure are included; the writings are due to me by March 2, 2018. All we need now is you!

Information can also be downloaded from our website, www.mbcc.mt.gov. A video highlighting the National Recognition Week can be viewed at www.dtwt.org. If you have any questions, please contact me by phone at 406-444-2056 or email me at sdclark@mt.gov.

Sincerely,

Shawn Clark
